Disciplinary Actions Reported For April

NASD Regulation, Inc. (NASD RegulationSM) has taken disciplinary actions against the following firms and individuals for violations of National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD[®]) rules; federal securities laws, rules, and regulations; and the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB). The information relating to matters contained in this Notice is current as of the end of March 2002.

Firm Expelled, Individuals Sanctioned

Barron Chase Securities (CRD #18969, Boca Raton, Florida), Robert Thomas Kirk, Jr. (CRD #1204425, Registered Principal, Parkland, Florida), and Brian Dean Fitzgerald (CRD #1259552, Registered Principal, Boca Raton, Florida) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which the firm was expelled from NASD membership and Kirk was barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity. Fitzgerald was fined $7,500, suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for 30 days, and ordered to requalify by exam for the Series 24 license before acting again in a principal capacity. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the respondents consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that the firm acted as lead managing underwriter for many initial public offerings (IPOs), that the firm and Kirk failed to ensure that the prospectus for an IPO was not false and misleading, and that they failed to amend the prospectus to reflect material changes in the offering and the use of IPO proceeds.

The findings also stated that the firm, acting through Kirk, engaged in continuing distributions of other IPOs while maintaining a market, bidding for, and purchasing the stock and warrants prior to the completion of the distribution. The firm transferred the IPO balances from the firm's syndicate account to its trading account and continued the distribution of IPO securities while the firm maintained a market in the securities and sold the securities to the firm's public customers at prevailing higher aftermarket prices. The NASD found that Kirk failed to inform the firm's brokers or customers that the firm had withheld IPO shares and warrants, made the inventory transfers of the IPO securities, and sold the IPO shares and warrants to the customers at inflated aftermarket prices. In addition, the NASD found that Fitzgerald assisted in the firm's and Kirk's violations of Regulation M by opening aftermarket trading in securities before their distribution was completed and transferring the IPO securities from the firm's syndicate account to its trading account without verifying that these distributions were complete. Moreover, Fitzgerald assisted the firm's and Kirk's violation of the Freeriding and Withholding Interpretation by failing to verify that the firm maintained inventory balances in the IPO securities. Furthermore, the NASD found that Kirk failed to respond to NASD requests to provide information and documents and to appear to give testimony.

Fitzgerald's suspension began April 1, 2002, and will conclude at the close of business April 30, 2002. (NASD Case #CAF020008)

Firms Fined, Individuals Sanctioned

(CRD #7809, Los Angeles, California) and James Alexander (CRD #2762, Registered Principal, Los Angeles, California) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which they were fined $62,500, jointly and severally. In addition, the firm was censured and fined $7,500, jointly and severally, with another individual, and Alexander was suspended from association with any NASD member in a principal capacity for 30 days. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the respondents consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that they permitted an individual who was barred from associating with any NASD member in any capacity to function as an associated person. The findings also stated that the firm failed to establish, modify, or revise its written supervisory procedures to be in compliance with NASD Conduct Rule 3010. Furthermore, the NASD determined that the firm permitted individuals associated with the firm to perform the duties of registered persons while their registration status with the NASD was inactive due to their failure to timely complete the Regulatory Element of the NASD's Continuing Education Requirement.

Alexander's suspension began March 18, 2002, and will conclude at the close of business April 16, 2002. (NASD Case #C02020007)

vFinance Investments (CRD #25121, Boca Raton, Florida) and Steven David Schwartz (CRD #832419, Registered Principal, Mt. Laurel, New Jersey) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which they were censured and fined $70,000, jointly and severally. The firm was fined an additional $5,000 and Schwartz was fined an additional $10,000, barred from association with any NASD member in any principal or supervisory position, and suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for 30 days. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the respondents consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that the firm, acting through Schwartz, issued transaction confirmations to public customers that were materially inaccurate in that they failed to disclose its capacity in the transactions as "dual agent" when acting as principal and failed to disclose the markup or markdown it derived in addition to the disclosed commission. The findings also stated that the firm failed to meet the requirements of NASD Conduct Rule 2320(g) in non-Nasdaq securities transactions. In addition, the NASD found that the firm failed to properly report through the Automated Confirmation Transaction Service® (ACT®) transactions in National Market System securities, Nasdaq SmallCapSM securities, and over-the-counter (OTC) Equity securities; failed to timely report certain trades; improperly aggregated certain trades into a single report; reported an incorrect volume for certain trades; failed to accept or decline transactions in ACT in eligible securities within 20 minutes after execution; and failed to report to ACT the correct symbol indicating whether the firm executed transactions in eligible securities in a principal or agency capacity.

Moreover, the NASD found that the firm, acting through Schwartz, failed to disclose in writing to public customers information regarding payment for order flow in which the firm acted as agent and, in penny stock transactions, failed to provide public customers a penny stock risk disclosure document and obtain a manually signed and dated written acknowledgement of receipt of the document from the customers. Furthermore, the firm failed to cause its director of investment banking to become registered as a general securities principal or to preclude him from performing functions and activities requiring registration in that capacity. The NASD also found that the firm participated in public offerings of securities that traded in the immediate aftermarket and failed to comply with IM-2110-1 in that in each offering the firm effected sales and retained securities that were part of the offering in firm accounts. In addition, the NASD found that the firm submitted materially false and inaccurate Free-Riding and Withholding Questionnaires to the NASD and failed to transmit funds from investors to whom it sold units to a bank escrow account or to deposit the funds into a separate bank account as agent or trustee. Finally, the NASD found that the firm and Schwartz failed to establish a supervisory system, and failed to establish and maintain written policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent the above violations.

Schwartz' suspension began March 18, 2002, and will conclude at the close of business April 16, 2002. (NASD Case #C9A020007)

a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which they were censured. The firm was fined $10,000, jointly and severally, with Snyder, and was fined $10,000, jointly and severally, with Telfer. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the respondents consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that, in connection with the firm's purchase of active accounts from another member firm, Barington Capital did not have new account forms for any of the accounts and, in many instances, the brokers' books were missing other essential information from the accounts. The findings also stated that the firm failed to provide public customers with required penny stock risk disclosures and the required market and price information regarding each of their penny stock holdings on their monthly account statements. The firm was also fined an additional $10,000. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the respondents consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that the firm operated its business as an introducing firm and claimed an exemption which prohibits the receipt of customer funds and/or securities. The NASD found that the firm, acting through Winslow, failed to comply with their claimed exemption in that the firm received checks made payable to the firm rather than to their clearing firm. The NASD also found that the firm, acting through Winslow, used the instrumentalities of interstate commerce to conduct a securities business while failing to maintain its minimum required net capital. The findings also stated that the firm failed, within 90 seconds of execution, to transmit transactions in OTC equity securities through ACT, and failed to designate through ACT these transactions as late. The findings also stated that the firm failed to report to ACT the correct price of the transactions on Nasdaq National Market® (NNM®) securities and failed to identify through ACT in a last sale report of transactions on NNM securities that such report was an aggregated transaction report. In addition, the NASD determined that the firm reported to ACT the incorrect capacity designation on transactions. Furthermore, the NASD found that the firm failed to show the correct execution time on order tickets and failed to have required order tickets. The NASD also determined that the firm failed to establish, maintain, and enforce written procedures reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws, regulations, and the rules of the NASD regarding trading reporting, time stamping of sales memoranda, and the receipt of customer checks. (NASD Case #C11020008)

The findings also stated that the firm failed to execute orders fully and promptly; executed short sale orders in certain securities and failed to maintain a written record of the affirmative determination made for such orders; executed four short sale transactions in certain securities, all of which were NNM securities at or below the current inside bid when the current inside bid was below the preceding inside bid in the security; executed seven transactions in listed securities for its own account while holding unexecuted customer limit orders to buy or sell the same securities at equal or better prices; and executed short sale transactions and failed to report each of these transactions to ACT with a short sale modifier. reports of transactions in NNM securities reported to ACT within 90 seconds of execution, incorrectly designated as “.SLD” through ACT last sale reports of transactions in eligible securities reported to ACT within 90 seconds of execution, and incorrectly designated as “.T” through ACT two last sale reports of transactions in NNM securities executed during normal market hours and failed to designate through ACT such last sale reports as late; and entered priced broadcast orders into SelectNet that were each priced better than the firm’s public quote reflecting each such order in the firm’s public quote as required by SEC Rule 11a1-1(c)(5).

(CRD #37730, Boca Raton, Florida), David Stewart Davidson (CRD #1212799, Registered Principal, Boca Raton, Florida), Lloyd Sylvester Martin Beirne (CRD #1982417, Registered Principal, Boca Raton, Florida), Eric Scott Thomes (CRD #2233456, Registered Principal, Boca Raton, Florida), and Matthew Greenwald (CRD #229262, Registered Principal, Boca Raton, Florida) were named as respondents in an NASD complaint alleging that the firm, Beirne, Davidson, and Thomes, directly or indirectly employed devices, schemes, or artifices to defraud and/or engaged in acts, practices, or courses of business that operated as a fraud or deceit upon public investors in connection with the purchase and sale of warrants. The firm, acting through Beirne, Davidson, and Thomes,

allegedly engaged in a series of activities designed to arbitrarily and artificially increase the price of the warrants, and Thomes set the firm's quotes and executed the firm's trades in the warrants while knowing that his role was part of an overall activity that was improper. The complaint also alleges that Beirne and Davidson intentionally or recklessly caused the firm to act as a market maker in, and enter bids for, warrants and stock on the OTC Bulletin Board (OTCBB) when they recklessly disregarded the fact that the firm was engaged in a distribution of the units and stocks. The complaint alleges that Beirne and Davidson caused the firm to bid for and reacquire warrants and shares of stock from public customers for the firm's proprietary account and directed the firm's sales force to solicit retail customers to purchase stock while the distribution was still in progress, and that Thomes rendered substantial assistance by setting the firm's quotes and executing the firm's trades in the stocks while knowing that his role was part of an overall activity that was improper. In addition, the complaint alleges that Beirne and Davidson failed to respond to NASD requests for documents and to appear for on-the-record interviews. Furthermore, the complaint alleges that the firm and Greenwald failed to adequately set forth written supervisory procedures and systems reasonably designed to achieve compliance with federal securities laws and NASD rules relating to investment banking and trading. (NASD Case #CAF020007)

Carla Joy Halverson (CRD #859074, Registered Representative, Littleton, Colorado) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that she engaged in unauthorized trading in that she accepted mini tender offers for her customers without their prior authorization. (NASD Case #C3A020007)

Investors Advocate, LLC (CRD #45801, Houston, Texas) and Jason Conrad Watkins (CRD #2242396, Associated Person, Flint, Michigan) were named as respondents in an NASD complaint alleging that the firm, acting through Watkins, provided or caused to be provided, false and misleading information and documentation to the NASD during a financial and operational exam. The NASD complaint also alleges that the firm, acting through Watkins, mishandled and misused customer funds and the firm failed to comply with SEC Rules, in that it used the mails or other means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce to effect transactions in securities when it failed to maintain the minimum required net capital. Furthermore, the complaint alleges that the firm failed to maintain complete, current, and accurate books and records as required by SEC Rules in that it prepared inaccurate trial balances and net capital computations, filed false and inaccurate quarterly FOCUS Reports that materially overstated the firm's net capital, and failed to file an audited annual financial statement. In addition, the complaint alleges that the firm failed to adequately and completely respond to NASD requests for information and documents. (NASD Case #C8A020007)

John Allen Jones, IV (CRD #2351720, Registered Representative, Montgomery, Alabama) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he recommended purchase and sale transactions in various securities for public customers without having reasonable grounds for believing that they were suitable for customers in view of the frequency and nature of the recommended transactions and the customer's financial situation, objectives, circumstances and needs. (NASD Case #C05020006)

Daniel Steven Kippert (CRD #2327018, Registered Representative, Ogden, Utah) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he instructed a sales assistant to transfer $1,700 from a public customer's account maintained at his member firm to his personal bank account without the prior knowledge, authorization, or consent of the customer. (NASD Case #C3A020011)

Victor Kozirovsky (CRD #2841043, Registered Representative, Woodmere, New York) and Reynolds Michael Verdiner (CRD #2858516, Registered Representative, Brooklyn, New York) were named as respondents in an NASD complaint alleging that they opened accounts and made unauthorized purchases of stock during an IPO for persons who had not agreed to purchase the stock or even to open accounts with their member firm. The complaint also alleges that Kozirovsky opened an account and made an unauthorized purchase of stock for another individual. (NASD Case #CAF020004)

Phung M. Le (CRD #3274440, Registered Representative, Springfield, Massachusetts) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he forged public customers' signatures on traditional life insurance death benefit checks and deposited the checks into a bank account for his own use and benefit. The complaint also alleges that Le failed to respond to NASD requests for information. (NASD Case #C11020011)

Michael Robert Marcus (CRD #2291751, Registered Principal, Brooklyn, New York) and Louis Michael Montaino (CRD #2570300, Registered Representative, Middle Village, New York) were named as respondents in an NASD complaint alleging that they, directly or indirectly, by the use of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce of the mails or of any facility of any national securities exchange, knowingly or recklessly employed manipulative or deceptive devices or contrivances in connection with the purchase or sale of securities; knowingly or recklessly effected transactions in, or induced the purchase or sale of securities by means of manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent devices or contrivances; or made untrue statements of material fact and omitted to state material facts necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The complaint alleges that Marcus and Montaino engaged in a "pump and dump" manipulative scheme using a thinly traded, low-priced stock listed on the OTCBB. The complaint further alleges that Montaino aggressively solicited retail customers to purchase the security through a campaign of omissions and misrepresentations and Marcus placed day limit purchase orders for shares of the security with a market maker nearly every day at increasingly higher prices to create the appearance of interest and activity even though he had no customer purchase orders. In addition, the complaint alleges that Marcus aided and abetted the manipulative trading of others. (NASD Case #CAF010025)

Aaron Simon Morris (CRD #2691021, Registered Representative, Hollywood, Florida) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that by use of the means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce, or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange, he employed a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud, omitted to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or engaged in acts, practices, or a course of business which operated, or could operate, as a fraud or deceit upon persons in connection with the recommendations he made to public customers to purchase stock. (NASD Case #C3A020006)

Curtis William Triggs, Jr. (CRD #3184470, Registered Representative, St. Louis, Missouri) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that a document entitled "Customer Account Check Request" was completed bearing a public customer's name and signature requesting a check for the customer in the amount of $68,252.09 without the customer's knowledge or consent. The complaint further alleges that Triggs attempted to misuse the customer's funds in that he obtained a cashier's check without the knowledge or consent of the customer in the amount of $68,249.09 and directed that the funds be applied to his defaulted mortgage. The complaint also alleges that Triggs failed to respond to NASD requests for information or to appear for an on-the-record interview. (NASD Case #C04020006)
